Mary's third monochrome photo for the February 2012 competition must be named:

to enter it as the fifth monochrome photo for 2012 Year End competition, it must be renamed to:

3. File must be emailed to our site: accentries@gmail.com. For now, they should be mailed one at a time in separate emails. Mail them by the end of the Sunday before the competition.

No guarantee as to what happens if you do not name your files correctly or if you email more than one file with the same name. Most likely your photos will not be included in the competition.
